LOVE IS WORTH THE RIDE
By Deborah Savran

E A
Baby, no more waiting here
E B
Let's take the circle road
Baby, no delaying dear
F# B
'Cause comfort is such a heavy load

A (5th Fr)
And it's true how high we've gone
Ab
Yet there's still some holding on
C#minor barre. Ab A
To creation and the self the dwells therein

Let's weed out those clinging roots
That have tied us down to lose
How amazing and weightless we are

CHORUS
Bb E
Yeah love is worth the ride
A E
No need to push or to strive
A E
To walk across the line
Bb E
Yeah love is worth the ride

Oh yeah, we've got the agency
Of that have not doubt
To let go of Complacency
And step right down the rainbow route

Let's unlock those chains that bind
And to nothing false align
Then true freedom will abound

The returning path's so clear
Let's expose what inteferes
With how amazing and weightless we are

CHORUS
Yeah love is worth the ride
A E
No need to push or to strive
To walk across the line
Bb E
Yeah love is worth the ride

Bridge
Cross the line
Cross the line
No borders need be defined
Cross the line
Cross the line
All we need to be is aligned

And love is worth the ride
No need to push or to strive
To walk across the line
Love is worth the ride
Love is worth the ride
It's just divine
Love is worth the ride
Get out of time
And shine shine shine

Bb A E
